

About the Company

Locations

Biography Films is currently shooting locally in parts of Northern California and in the Spokane, Washington and Coeur d'Alene, Idaho areas. Please contact us if you would like to discuss travel arrangements outside of these locations.

The People

Paul Merchant is the company founder and a filmmaker for Biography Films. His production work has served companies like Hewlett Packard and Chevron and has aired on national television. Paul studied film and English at Brigham Young University, where he received his B.A., and he studied Creative Writing at Eastern Washington University. He keeps a personal website at www.paulmerchant.com.

Noel Piercy, the company's first producer, studied acting and filmmaking at the New York Film Academy. He received his B.A. in Spanish and Art from Eastern Washington University.

Our team includes other talented editors, filmmakers, and producers. With the help of our partners and advisory board, we are working to bless the lives of thousands with our personal biography packages.

Employment

If you are interested in becoming a producer, filmmaker, or editor for Biography Films, use our contact page to enquire for more information.